Chidlow 26-13-169 Def Midland 12-5-77

Round ten was Think Mental Health round, a round dedicated to raising suicide awareness.

The Tigers were first to score a goal after Denver Roberts managed to break through centre traffic to get the ball forward for Toban Higgins to collect the loose ball and convert. From there the Cougars started to take control. Tim Huntley rebounded from deep in his backline while Luke Elliott dominated in the air. Jake Forman got the Cougars goal scoring underway. Joshua Johnson showed early nerves in the ruck contests, once he settled down he controlled most of the contests pinpointing teammates like Matt Mallaby who ran the ball out of the middle delivering it into the waiting arms of Nathan Sutton who kicked accurately for goal.

Chidlow had scored an accurate seven goals one behind for the quarter to take a twenty four point lead into the first break. Injuries began to impact both teams. Tom Self was gone for the game with a calf injury after a solid start in the backline. Matt Mallaby was moved back onto the ball offering the Cougars even more drive. He managed to kick the ball forward for newcomer Declyn Finnamore to mark and goal. Tobin Higgins combined with Jason Gericitano to offer Midland some needed spark. The Cougars had managed to extend their lead to thirty three points to start the third quarter which ended up being a dominant one for the Cougars adding six goals to one.. Max Daniels started to pick up more possessions around the contests, he pinpointed Reece Forbes out on the wing, he chipped forward then ran on to collect a handball finishing off with a goal after running the length of the ground. Jake Forman showed his endurance by covering most of his forward line and adding another goal to his eventual tally of seven for the game.

The Tigers showed character in the last quarter as they stayed with Chidlow on the scoreboard as they kicked four goals each. Francis Dorizzi , Renee Anderson and Denver Roberts were solid contributors all game for the Tigers. While for the Cougars it was Nathan Sutton with six goals, Max Daniels for his non stop run and Jake Forman for his all round performance including his seven goals. Jake was awarded the Think Mental Health game ball after being voted as Best on Ground.

Great effort by the boys against Chidlow in Chidlow last week . Hitting the scoreboard more each week ! . Chidlow put on a very competitive game of football and with many outs the boys did a great job keeping the scoreboard respectful. Big shout out to Francis in the Ruck and Denver for a stand out game !
